

"From the time the client calls for her initial appointment, she is number one."

Erin Kowalewski and Janice Clark
Spargo Salon & Day Spa

With Mediterranean designs, cascading waterfalls, authentic Roman artifacts, and a dedication to the mind, body, and soul, Spargo Salon & Day Spa is the perfect place to retreat, relax, and renew before taking the first step into the rest of your life. Spa Director Erin Kowalewski and General Manager Janice Clark make it their mission to provide the most opulent experience for every bride they meet. More than just wedding day hair and makeup, Spargo provides a full array of services to prepare and pamper before the big day. "Planning a wedding can be a stressful time," Janice explains. "We have service packages to help them de-stress."

"From the time the client calls for her initial appointment, she is number one. There is no room for error," Janice says. To ensure this, brides fill out an initial bridal worksheet explaining their style and desired services. Then the pampering process begins.

From luxurious massages, hydrotherapy treatments, and nourishing body wraps, to glamorous updos and cascading curls, Erin and Janice know how important it is for every bride to look and feel like the most beautiful woman in the world.

Janice's strong background in customer service keeps the salon running smoothly, assuring every client can enjoy a sensual, relaxing atmosphere. "When clients walk in it's as though they are entering a different world," she explains. As if walking into a Roman bathhouse, the ambiance of Spargo envelopes you, whisking your wedding worries away and leaving you relaxed, renewed, and ready to walk down the aisle.

Be Radiant.
